Peter Chow
Vietnamese, born 1954
GARNITURE #2
2010
Ceramic
Crocker Art Museum, gift of the Artist,
2010.97.1–5
SUBJECT: Chow's vessels combine street photography with ceramics. He collages both the contours and exteriors of each piece with his photographs and then fires them, which burns the paper away, leaving permanently, sepia-toned images.
Small ancient Greek pottery and urns with symbolized lips sometimes resemble subjects, despite the decidedly contemporary subjects.
ARTIST: Chow earned his B.A. in photography and film at the University of the Arts in Philadelphia. He has over 30 years of experience as a photographer but only began wheel-throwing ceramics in 2015. Today, he continues his work in Philadelphia.
LOOK FOR: Everyday people from all walks of life and backgrounds.
